Reason(s) for Modification (as stated by filer)	• Judge Horibe is requesting a reporting modification that would exempt him from disclosing his residential address on his Personal Financial Affairs Statement (F-1 report) covering the previous twelve months, due to safety concerns. • Judge Horibe stated that he is currently serving as an Industrial Appeals Judge at the Washington State Board of Industrial Insurance Appeals and served as a Pierce County Deputy Prosecuting Attorney's Office. He stated that his request to not disclose his residence is due to safety concerns for himself and his family connected to his criminal justice work. • Judge Horibe is also requesting redaction an original campaign report containing his residence.
Other Issues	Judge Horibe has used an alternative address for his residence on his 2026 candidate F-1 report. Judge Horibe has amended the campaign report with his residential address and replaced it. Judge Horibe's records would be exempt from public disclosure if the Commission finds in accordance with RCW 29B.20.040 and WAC 390-28-080 that disclosure of such information would present a personal risk to a reasonable person.
