Explanation of Rule(s)	Personal residence - Real property. Regarding reporting the information otherwise required by RCW 29B.55.030 (1)(h) through (k): (i) No modification will be necessary if the filer describes the real property using one of the alternatives in WAC 390-24-200, plus the name of the county. Judges, prosecutors, or sheriffs may describe a personal residence in the alternative manner provided under RCW 29B.55.030(2) and WAC 390-24-200 without a modification. (ii) A modification will be required if the filer seeks some other means to describe reportable real property including the personal residence of the filer. The commission may consider and grant such a modification to amend the description of a residential address to the extent necessary to protect the applicant or an immediate family member who has received a threat, has obtained a no contact order, or has presented a similar personal safety concern. Applicants whose spouse or registered domestic partner creates a reporting obligation for the applicant. When an applicant is required to report the activities of an entity solely because the applicant's spouse or registered domestic partner held an office, directorship, general partnership or ownership interest in the entity and the applicant does not have direct knowledge of the information that must be reported, the applicant may be allowed to satisfy the disclosure requirements of RCW 29B.55.030 (1)(g)(ii) by disclosing reportable customers from whom compensation in excess of the disclosure threshold established under RCW 29B.55.030 (1)(g)(ii) has been received as follows:

	(A) All payments made by the agency or jurisdiction in which the applicant seeks or holds office to the entity; (B) The business and other governmental customers or clients of the applicant's spouse/domestic partner of which the applicant is aware; and (C) Any other business and other governmental customers or clients of the entity whose identities are known to the applicant and whose interests are significantly affected by the agency or jurisdiction in which the applicant seeks or holds office. The commission may apply (e)(i) through (iii) of this subsection when the applicant's spouse/domestic partner is a lawyer, judge, or motor vehicle dealer.
Supporting Documents (attached)	☒ Current F-1 (Filed March 22, 2026) ☒ Modification Application
Reason(s) for Modification (as stated by filer)	• Theodore Angelis is requesting a partial reporting modification that would exempt him from disclosing his residential address on his Personal Financial Affairs Statement (F-1 report) covering the previous twelve months, due to safety concerns. • Mr. Angelis stated his request is being made at the advisement of Supreme Court security officials plus his personal desire to protect his family from increased threats made to judges. • Mr. Angelis is also requesting a partial reporting modification that would exempt him from disclosing reportable information related to his spouse's business clients on his Personal Financial Affairs Statements (F-1 reports) filed covering the previous twelve months. • Mr. Angelis' spouse was a 20% owner of a family business, SC Hydraulics during the previous twelve months. • Mr. Angelis states that SC Hydraulics has no operations in Washington and employs only one administrative officer.
Other Issues	• Mr. Angelis has used an alternative address for his residence on his 2026 candidate F-1 report. • Mr. Angelis states that there is no connection between SC Hydraulics and the Washington Supreme Court and has disclosed all other governmental payments.

	• Mr. Angelis has agreed to recuse himself if a matter came before him involving a conflict of interest between his personal financial interests and his duties as a Supreme Court Justice.
