Explanation of Rule(s)	WAC 390-28-100 (1) Under RCW 29B.20.040, the commission or presiding officer may modify reporting requirements, including the statement of financial affairs, if literal application of the requirement would work a manifestly unreasonable hardship and the suspension or modification would not frustrate the purpose of the law. One or more of the following may be considered by the commission or presiding officer as possible qualifications for a reporting modification with respect to the statement of financial affairs, when such standard is met: (b) Income and ownership interests. An applicant may be exempted from reporting the information otherwise required by RCW 29B.55.030 (1)(f) and (g), if: (i) Public disclosure would violate any legally recognized confidential relationship that serves a legitimate business interest; (ii) The information does not relate to a business entity which would be subject to the regulatory authority of the office sought or held by the applicant in whole or in part; (iii) Such reporting would present a manifestly unreasonable hardship to the applicant including but not limited to adversely affecting the competitive position of an entity in which the applicant had an interest of ten percent or more as described in RCW 29B.20.040; and (iv) The interest in question would present no actual or potential conflict with the performance of the duties of the office sought or held.
Supporting Documents (attached)	☒ Current F-1 (Filed April 8, 2026) ☒ Modification Application

Reason(s) for Modification (as stated by filer)	• Emi Byrnes is requesting a partial reporting modification that would exempt her from disclosing reportable business customers related to her business relationship with Certified Inspection Services, Inc. • Certified Inspection Services Inc provides nondestructive testing services, mostly in the maritime industry. • This company reports approximately $1.5 million in annual sales, 10 employees and over 140 customers during 2025. • Emi Byrnes states that 38 customers would be subject to disclosure. The disclosure of customers would violate confidentiality agreements. • The company's customer list is proprietary information. Disclosing this information would create a competitive disadvantage as customers would be easily accessible to competitors.
Other Issues	• Emi Byrnes has agreed to recuse herself if a matter came before him involving a conflict of interest between his personal interests in Certified Inspection Services, Inc., and the duties of her office with the Riverview School Board Director. • The commission could grant this modification through her current term of office as allowed in RCW 29B.20.040(1). Her current term ends November 2027.
