Explanation of Rule(s)	Applicants whose spouse or registered domestic partner creates a reporting obligation for the applicant. When an applicant is required to report the activities of an entity solely because the applicant's spouse or registered domestic partner held an office, directorship, general partnership or ownership interest in the entity and the applicant does not have direct knowledge of the information that must be reported, the applicant may be allowed to satisfy the disclosure requirements of RCW 29B.55.030 (1)(g)(ii) by disclosing reportable customers from whom compensation in excess of the disclosure threshold established under RCW 29B.55.030 (1)(g)(ii) has been received as follows: (A) All payments made by the agency or jurisdiction in which the applicant seeks or holds office to the entity; (B) The business and other governmental customers or clients of the applicant's spouse/domestic partner of which the applicant is aware; and (C) Any other business and other governmental customers or clients of the entity whose identities are known to the applicant and whose interests are significantly affected by the agency or jurisdiction in which the applicant seeks or holds office. The commission may apply (e)(i) through (iii) of this subsection when the applicant's spouse/domestic partner is a lawyer, judge, or motor vehicle dealer.
Supporting Documents (attached)	☒ Current F-1 (originally filed February 15, 2022 & amended March 17, 2022) ☒ Modification Application ☐ Modification Order
Reason(s) for Modification (as stated by filer)	• Jodie Barcus is requesting a partial reporting modification that would exempt her from disclosing all of the reportable business customers that paid $12,000 or more during the reporting period to Industrial Irom Works, of which her spouse is owner operator and 100% ownership interest. • Industrial Iron Works is located in Okanogan, Washington and offers welding service, custom fabrication, and heavy equipment maintenance.

	• Ms. Barcus indicated that some of the customers are publicly available and she could gain access to a list of the reportable customers.
Other Issues	Jodie Barcus has agreed to recuse herself if a matter came before her involving a conflict of interest between Industrial Iron Works and her duties as Okanogan County Sheriff. Ms. Barcus has confirmed that Industrial Iron works received no payments from Okanogan County.
