Explanation of Rule(s)	Applicants whose spouse or registered domestic partner creates a reporting obligation for the applicant. When an applicant is required to report the activities of an entity solely because the applicant's spouse or registered domestic partner held an office, directorship, general partnership or ownership interest in the entity and the applicant does not have direct knowledge of the information that must be reported, the applicant may be allowed to satisfy the disclosure requirements of RCW 29B.55.030 (1)(g)(ii) by disclosing reportable customers from whom compensation in excess of the disclosure threshold established under RCW 29B.55.030 (1)(g)(ii) has been received as follows: (A) All payments made by the agency or jurisdiction in which the applicant seeks or holds office to the entity; (B) The business and other governmental customers or clients of the applicant's spouse/domestic partner of which the applicant is aware; and (C) Any other business and other governmental customers or clients of the entity whose identities are known to the applicant and whose interests are significantly affected by the agency or jurisdiction in which the applicant seeks or holds office. The commission may apply (e)(i) through (iii) of this subsection when the applicant's spouse/domestic partner is a lawyer, judge, or motor vehicle dealer. (2) "Bona fide separate property agreement" means an agreement or court order describing separate property in a valid: (a) Prenuptial agreement; (b) Separate property contract under chapter 26.09 RCW; (c) Separate property court decree under chapter 26.09 RCW; (d) Domestic partnership agreement under chapter 26.60 RCW; (e) Domestic partnership agreement as part of a notice of termination under chapter 26.60 RCW; or (f) Postnuptial agreement.

	(3) "Other bona fide separate status" means a valid written agreement or court decree recognizing the separate status of the parties under state law, including their individual property that is separate under state law.
Supporting Documents (attached)	☒ Current F-1 (filed August 10, 2026) ☒ Modification Application ☐ Prior order
Reason(s) for Modification (as stated by filer)	• Judge McKeeman is requesting a partial reporting modification that would exempt her from disclosing reportable financial information connected to her spouse during the previous twelve months on his Personal Financial Affairs Statement (F-1 report). • Judge McKeeman stated that, although her and her spouse do not have a legal separation, they have lived separately since late 2024 and they maintain separate residences, finances and accounts. She further stated that her and her spouse have not comingled funds or acquired property together while separated.
Other Issues	• Judge McKeeman has disclosed all other reportable information on her F-1 report. • Judge McKeeman is aware of and has disclosed her spouse's employment and income. • Judge McKeeman is also bound by the Code of Judicial Conduct and is required to recuse herself if a matter came before her involving a conflict of interest. • Judge McKeeman's request could be granted through her current term of office as allowed in RCW 29B.20.040(1).
